APPLICATION FOR THE PEACE ACTION YOUTH AWARD

Funded by
STEPHANIE A. MINER and JOHN F. X. MANNION

The Peace Action Youth Award of $500, funded by Stephanie A. Miner and John F. X. Mannion, will be presented in June by Peace Action of Central New York to a high school senior in Onondaga County who has shown a devotion and commitment to peace, justice, and conflict resolution. The student should have engaged in activities—through school, place of worship, or community—that demonstrate his or her passion to work against the underlying causes of war, violence, or injustice.

Requirements for applying. Applications must include the following:

- 1) A letter of reference, based on the enclosed reference guideline sheet, from a teacher, counselor, religious leader, or other adult describing the applicant's dedication to working for peace, justice, and conflict resolution.

The adult completing the reference should send it no later than Friday, March 21, 2008, to:

The Peace Action Youth Award
